Pikeville Medical Center, Inc. (“PMC”) respects the privacy of individuals in all aspects of our business operations. We have a longstanding commitment to protecting the personal information of all applicants. Your personal information is only collected, used, and disclosed by PMC in accordance with federal and state privacy law. As a PMC applicant, you are asked to provide certain information used to provide you with the best possible service. In addition to your contact information, your resume, and a description of the type of work you are looking for, your file may include: interview notes, information from reference/background checks, educational records, and/or skill testing results. We never collect more personal information than is needed to fulfill the purposes described above, unless requested by the applicant. Your personal information is never traded, sold, or leased to any external company. Your information is only disclosed for legitimate business purposes or as required to meet legal and regulatory requirements. The data that you provide to us will be stored securely. If you have any concerns or questions about the Privacy Policy, contact our privacy officer at 606.218.3542.
